

We will never commit, condone or remain silent about violence against women and girls.

Travis Greenley (youth educator) and these students from the Montgomery School believe in the White Ribbon Pledge: to never commit, condone or remain silent about violence against women and girls. Please join them in signing the pledge at HeadwatersWhiteRibbon.ca. Let's stop violence against women.

White Ribbon Campaign
working to end violence against women

